U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On January 16, 2009, this officer discussed the alleged violations of supervised release with the offender.

With regard to violation number one (Driving While Suspended), the offender has been warned not to operate a motor vehicle until his driver's license and his other motor vehicle credentials have been restored. The offender was additionally warned that he if he continues to drive while suspended, or incurs any other violations of supervised release his case may be returned to Court for revocation proceedings.

With regard to violation number two (failing to make payments), the Court will note that the offender currently resides with his paramour, his son, and his parents in Berlin, New Jersey. He is employed full-time as a forklift operator at Ledestri Foods in Pennsauken, New Jersey. Mr. Waite's current salary is $14.00 an hour, plus overtime. According to his Monthly Supervision Reports, the offender's average monthly income is $2,240.00, and his average monthly expenses total $1,294.00, leaving a monthly cash flow of $946.00.

This officer informed the offender he is court-ordered to make consistent minimum payments of $50.00 per month, until his fine is paid in full. The offender acknowledged his court ordered fine obligation and stated he would begin to make consistent monthly payments of $50.00 towards his financial obligation.

The probation officer respectfully requests that Your Honor endorse this petition to serve as an Official Judicial Reprimand for the offender's non-compliance.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Daniel J. Carney
